Bring Your Soldier's Photo To The Herald To Be Saved

HEROES are being made every day in France. It is right that their pic-tures should be preserved. Some may never come back, even if they go through it all and get home safely, there is no harm in preserving their pic-tures as they looked when they went away.

With the tiles of preserving a photographic record of every El Paso soldier who has gone to war. The El Paso Harald will undertake to collect and care for all photographs left at this office. A calonet has been pre-pared, to be kept in a fireproof vault. The Herald would be glad if every family having a member in the army would send his photograph to this office to be preserved in these records. Plain black and while prints are

It is the plan of The Herald not only to preserve these pictures, but to print as many of them as possible from day to day and to have the pictures on hand in event of the death of any El Pasoan, or of his citation for

The reason for this sale is twofold: FIRST: We want to show our appreciation to our patrons for SECOND: This is our dull season and we must keep our tailors busy. This SALE is also an inducement to new patrons to become acquainted with FISCHBEIN'S fine Tailoring Service. This is your last opportunity to purchase PURE WOOL TAILOR-MADE CLOTHING at PRE-War Prices, and the wise buyer who believes in real economy will come here early Monday and select a suit. Makers of Ready-Made Clothing have heretofore pointed out the advantage in prices of their clothing over Made-to-Measure!

Now, you can buy a FISCHBEIN MADE-TO-MEAS-URE SUIT cheaper than you can a Ready-Made, not considering the many advantages of the Tailored Suit.

Our reliability is well known and when we make an unusual offer such as this, you can be assured you are getting a genuine bar-

All suits during this SALE will, of course, be made in our own shops, and you get the same high-grade workmanship and pure wool material that you would if you were paying our regular price.

REMEMBER! We only have a limited number patterns and we advise you to come early and make your selection.

ATTENTION, VOTERS

El Paso, Texas, July 19th, 1918. Judge W. D. Howe, El Paso County Court House, Dear Sir:

I wish to formally notify you so that you will not knowingly make the same mistake in the future, that you have in the past, in reference to me in your speeches for Mr. McKinney. There is no foundation for the statement that you have been making in these speeches that I intend to discharge the present deputies and clerks in the office of the District Clerk, if elected to that position. I have made no statement or promises to this effect to anyone.

I believe that you are a man who believes in fair play. Do you think it quite fair for the entire Court House ticket, especially yourself, to fight Mr. McKinney's battle for him? I am making my fight alone, and fighting fair. Why not let Mr. McKinney make his own speeches?

Very truly yours, MAY HADLOCK CARLISLE.
